

The Oregon Community Foundation

2018 Grants

Oregon Parks Foundation Fund

Organization	City	Amount
City of Reedsport to create a pocket park that consists of a steam donkey (yarder) and other logging artifacts alongside a trail for residents of Reedsport	Reedsport	$ 3,000
Coos Bay Public Library to provide Coos and Curry County libraries with backpacks filled with State Park passes, guides, and related outdoor gear for checkout to the public	Coos Bay	$ 3,000
Eastern Oregon Legacy Lands Fund to support the Wallowaology Wild Tracks program, providing guided, educational experiences outdoors for individuals and families, including destinations to Oregon State Parks and other natural areas in Wallowa County	Joseph	$ 2,000
Friends of the Columbia Gorge to jump-start a land stewardship program focused on fighting invasive weeds and restoring habitat on public lands in the Columbia Gorge, as popular trails between Angel's Rest and Ainsworth State Park reopen in 2018	Portland	$ 3,500
Hoyt Arboretum Friends Foundation to open over two acres of newly acquired parklands by extending the White Pine Trail, replacing a steep section in the existing trail with a flatter and wider trail, adding a new viewpoint, and installing interpretive and wayfinding signage	Portland	$ 4,000
Lower Nehalem Community Trust to create a new loop trail in Elk Meadows Park in Manzanita, allowing access to a portion of the park that abuts Nehalem Bay State Park and its trail system	Manzanita	$ 2,100
Oregon Shores Conservation Coalition to provide citizen science volunteer opportunities, supported by training and public education activities, for underserved areas of Oregon's southern coastal region	Seal Rock	$ 3,000
Siskiyou Field Institute to support "Siskiyou Outdoor School: Bridge to Education & Conservation on Public Lands," bringing partners together to design and construct a footbridge across Deer Creek to improve access to public lands on Eight Dollar Mountain while protecting areas that are both ecologically and culturally sensitive	Selma	$ 5,000
Wallowa Land Trust to support the summer outings program, "Into The Wallowa"	Enterprise	$ 1,500
Willamette Riverkeeper to create both trail and camping access along the Willamette River	Portland	$ 3,000

Grand Total (10 grants): $ 30,100