FUND AGREEMENT

Jane and Joe Oregon Fund

JANE OREGON and JOE OREGON (the "Donors") and THE OREGON COMMUNITY FOUNDATION, an Oregon nonprofit corporation ("OCF"), hereby agree to establish a charitable fund, subject to the following conditions:

1. Any and all assets transferred to OCF under this agreement, whether during the lifetimes of the Donors or after their deaths, shall be designated by OCF as the Jane and Joe Oregon Fund (the "Fund").
2. The assets of the Fund may be commingled with other OCF property for investment purposes.
3. The Fund is intended to be and shall be administered as a component fund of OCF and shall be subject to OCF's articles of incorporation and bylaws, as amended from time to time (including without limitation the provisions thereof authorizing OCF to vary or modify restrictions or conditions that it believes are unnecessary, incapable of fulfillment, or inconsistent with the charitable, educational, and scientific needs of the state of Oregon), and the terms of this agreement shall be construed and applied in all respects in a manner not inconsistent with OCF's articles of incorporation and bylaws. The assets of the Fund shall be held and owned by OCF in its corporate capacity and shall not be deemed to be held by OCF as trustee of a separate trust for any beneficiary.
4. OCF shall distribute in annual or other installments an appropriate percentage of the fair market value of the Fund for general charitable purposes principally in the state of Oregon. Such percentage shall be the percentage determined from time to time by the board of directors of OCF under its grant percentage payout policy for permanent funds. In determining such percentage, the board of directors of OCF will consider the expected total return on the investment of the permanent funds of OCF, the desirability of maintaining the real value of the permanent funds of OCF, and any and all other factors that OCF deems relevant in its sole discretion. In no event will such percentage be less than a reasonable rate of return.
5. Before making any charitable distribution from the Fund, OCF shall consult with and seek the advice of the Donors, or the survivor of them, if they are able and willing to consult and advise. Prior to each of OCF's funding cycles, OCF shall ask the advisors for recommendations regarding distributions pursuant to paragraph 4. Suggested recipients shall be tax-exempt charitable organizations described in Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) or governmental units described in section 170(c)(1). Recommendations shall not include any pledge, obligation, or membership subscribed to by an advisor, or any purpose for which an advisor receives benefit. Recommendations shall be acted upon after the OCF staff has determined that the recommended organizations so qualify and are serving their stated purposes and that the recommendations are consistent with the purposes of OCF and with the needs deserving of support by OCF as determined by its board and enumerated in its distribution guidelines. If OCF questions the tax exempt status of a recommended organization, its ability to perform its stated purposes, or the consistency of a recommendation with the purposes of OCF or the needs deserving of support by OCF, the advisors shall be so informed and given the opportunity to correct any misunderstanding or recommend an alternate distribution.

6. OCF shall appropriately memorialize the Fund for as long as the Fund remains in existence.

7. Unless OCF receives instructions to the contrary, all charitable distributions from the Fund shall be identified to the beneficiaries as coming from the Fund and OCF.
